COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Fire Station Study Committee now has another design for a fire station under consideration. The latest design is 60' x 60' with about 28'x60' of available floor space on the second floor. The usable floor space of the two structures is about the same. The cost figures of both buildings will be considered and the committee will then recommend the type building and the location favored by a majority of the members. The committee is a study group and can only recommend design and location. The group has had several meetings and considered many proposals but has not reached any definite proposal. Members of the committee have received several comments on the building but everyone with a comment or criticism has a different solution. The committee has no choice but to consider all the factors involved and to recommend the solution that is best for the town in general.

There are a couple of late requests for articles to be included in the warrant for town meeting. One article is the transportation of high school students to Gould Academy and Woodstock High School. The latest request is for an article to be included which would authorize the addition of fluorides to the water being used in the village. There are enough subjects to create a lot of discussion prior to town meeting and a lot at town meeting.

4. Athletic contests sponsored by outside parties require one or more police officers to handle the crowd and the parking of cars.

6. Established rental rates are flexible because of the infinite variety of requests we have had in the past and are expected to have in the future now that Bingham Hall is complete.

March of Dimes Mothers To Deliver Health Leaflet

Mothers who will be marching for the March of Dimes throughout the nation this January will distribute millions of copies of a leaflet entitled "One Minute Warning," which gives the latest facts about birth defects and arthritis.

According to local March of Dimes volunteer leaders, these two diseases are of concern to millions of people in this country. About 250,000 of our children are born each year with a serious birth defect. Arthritis and the rheumatic diseases afflict upward of 11,000,000 Americans.

The National March of Dimes is fighting these diseases with the same three-pronged attack which helped conquer polio as a public health problem. Using the experience gained in spearheading the development of the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines, March of Dimes funds scientific research.

* a nationwide scientific research program aimed at finding causes and cures for birth defects and arthritis;

* a nationwide network of treatment centers which help bring top-quality medical care to victims of these ailments;

* a nationwide professional education program which channels latest scientific findings to scientists, physicians and their associates; and

* a nationwide public education program.

Latest addition to this public education program, according to Dr. William E. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation, is the "One Minute Warning" leaflet.

"Our purpose is to reassure the public that much is being done in the fight against these two great ailments," Dr. Clark says. "The American people are sharing the fight with their contribution to the March of Dimes, and they have a right to receive periodic reports of what is being accomplished."

In recommending non-technical

Jane Wyatt, star of screen and TV, who is the 1964 Honorary National Mothers' March Chairman for the March of Dimes.

language, the pamphlet, which takes only a minute to read, suggests these precautions for a pregnant woman:

* See your doctor early. Be sure to tell any other doctor you may consult, for treatment of other conditions, that you are pregnant.

* Take no drugs on your own initiative. Tell your doctor about any you have been taking. Especially, stay away from "tranquilizers," "mood adjusters," and "happy pills."

* Learn your Rh factor, blood type, and your husband's. Inform your obstetrician.

* Follow the diet your doctor prescribes.

* Avoid excessive smoking and drinking.

* If pregnant, don't knowingly expose yourself to infectious diseases—particularly German measles.

For the person who suffers from arthritis, the leaflet stresses: "Follow ONLY the advice of your doctor." Several other points of advice are given, among them, "Remember, there are no quick cures, no short-cuts. Good results from treatment require time and patience."

If your home has been missed in the distribution of this pamphlet, you can obtain one free of charge from the local March of Dimes headquarters.

20 SECONDS with the NAZARENE

"... Wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction; ... straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."—Jesus of Nazareth Mat. 7

To every man is opened
A highway and a low,
And every man must choose
Which way his soul shall go.

COULD ONE-ACT PLAYS TO CHRISTEN NEW BINGHAM AUDITORIUM STAGE

The yearly presentation of three one-act plays, inaugurated at Gould by Mr. Thompson in 1942, is "all set" for its 1964 production on Saturday evening at eight. A novelty this year is the substitution of these one-act plays for the usual Senior Play; all of the thespians are seniors, as is the production staff of "prop" men, ushers, poster artists, etc.

A balanced program of two comedies and a serious play round out the evening's entertainment. Fluffy and light, the humorous plays have plenty of opportunity for character work, good lines, and fast pace. The serious play, The Valiant, is a "tried-and-true" drama, offering a striking range of emotional power; rehearsals of this difficult play forecast a fine and polished performance by the small cast.

Next best thing to being home

When distance separates you from home and loved ones, there's nothing that will bring you closer, and more quickly than a long distance telephone call.

So, if you can't be there in person, do the next best thing and call them long distance. You'll love it and so will they.
